POPS HOPS! Route 66 Icon presents first sales tax check to Town of Arcadia

October 16, 2007

For Immediate Release

Arcadia, OK---POPS has been hopping since the doors first opened only 9 weeks ago. Today in Arcadia, the management team from the newest icon along Route 66 shared this success with their neighbors in the town of Arcadia when they presented the first sales tax check to Mayor Marilyn Murrell.

In a brief ceremony at town hall, POPS General Manager Marty Doepke and Marketing Manager Jessica Ockershauser proudly presented a check for $6,075.27 to the town of Arcadia. This check represents the sales tax income from August, the first month of operation for POPS.

According to Mayor Murrell, the town recognized an increase of $10,000 for August sales tax collections over the prior two months. The numbers indicate that not only is POPS hopping, but the town of Arcadia is seeing a business boom as well, thanks to the increased traffic along Route 66.

"POPS is thrilled to be able to share such a great partnership with the town of Arcadia", said General Manager Marty Doepke, "We hope to continue to grow this partnership and know that we will see great things for POPS and the town of Arcadia in the years to come."
