Mother Road Becomes Road to Romance Couples Celebrate Unique Anniversaries at POPS!

February 4, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Arcadia, OK—The Mother Road has long been the inspiration for romance: writers have traveled the 2500 miles from Chicago to Los Angeles and written with passion about the American sense of adventure and freedom, lived out on the open road. But this Valentine's Day, a particular spot along Route 66 will host two couples, who are celebrating their love and passion for each other; at POPS!

Jim and Patsy Richardson and Beth and Paul Hayes, both from Oklahoma City will celebrate their anniversaries at POPS, the newest icon along Route 66, with complimentary lunches and Valentine's Day t-shirts. Beth Hayes heard about this special offer through her church and is thrilled to be a part of it. "My husband and I will be celebrating our 18th wedding anniversary this February 14th", said Hayes, "My husband was in the military for the first 7 years of our marriage and we spent our first anniversary apart while he was serving in the gulf war. So we never take this precious time we have together for granted."

The staff at POPS is gearing up for Cupid's day with great food, shake specials, and unique Valentine's holiday merchandise. POPS General Manager, Marty Doepke, is excited to host these couples and help them make this anniversary and Valentine's Day one to remember. "POPS has quickly become known for our incredible soda selection, but we do not want our guests to forget that POPS is a destination and a unique place to celebrate with family and friends."
